

Ikigai part 2

The second stage of Ikigai is exploring what the world needs and what we can get paid for – to help us live each day with more meaning and fulfilment. Answer the questions below to help you discover how you can use your passion to benefit others and make a living.

What can I get paid for?

What roles exist that relate to what I want to achieve?

What project(s) could I work on alongside my main source of income?
